

Kit List

It is important to bring everything that you need and to be prepared for the weather. Hopefully it will be shorts and t-shirts, however we can't be too presumptuous! To help you with packing, please find an advised kit list here.

You'll need to transport your own bag each day in the vehicle in which you are travelling. You are responsible for your own belongings. It would be a good idea to bring a day rucksack so you can have it on you, leaving your 'big bag' in a vehicle.
