About the race:

Endure24, a 24h relay race where endurance knows no bounds. A thrilling mix of anticipation and adrenaline to test your mental and physical fitness against on the backdrop of beautiful trails. Run as a solo or as a team as you push yourself and each other further. The only question remains is How far will you go?

There's nothing quite like the atmosphere you'll find at Endure24, from the incredible support of your fellow participants and those watching on, to the festival style campsite with all the food and drink your heart (and stomach) desires!

About the Venue:

Wasing Park is set within the beautiful Berkshire countryside amongst 22 acres which include a Manor House, walled gardens, and lakes. The 8km route ensures you'll cover all the stunning areas of this unique venue.
